

WILLETTE & GUERRA, L.L.P.

CHARLES WILLETTE, JR.

R.D. "BOBBY"
GUERRA

Willette and Guerra met in 1978, when Bobby was an ABC affiliate television news reporter and anchor who occasionally interviewed Charlie in his role as Brownsville's first full-time city attorney. Through their professional relationship, the two became close friends, remaining in touch after Guerra left the news business to pursue the practice of law.

SERVING THE VALLEY AND SOUTH TEXAS

In 1997, long after establishing successful practices in Brownsville and McAllen, Charlie and Bobby recognized that no local firm had yet successfully bridged the gap between the upper and lower Valley. "The real inspiration behind the creation of the firm was the realization that, by combining our resources, we could better service our clients throughout the region," says Guerra. "With fully staffed offices in both Cameron and Hidalgo counties, the firm provides excellent representation throughout the Rio Grande Valley and surrounding area," says Willette.

EXCELLENT REPRESENTATION The firm is dedicated to one fundamental guiding principle: Treat every client as you would like to be treated.

The 10 lawyer firm handles civil defense litigation, including governmental entities, general negligence, product liability, motor vehicle and construction accidents and premises liability. The firm also has extensive experience in employment law and civil rights cases in both state and federal court. The firm handles select plaintiffs' cases when there is no conflict of interest with its existing clients.
